PHOTO RELEASE

Millions of Filipinos, including colleagues from Philippine Airlines (PAL), will be cheering for PAMELA BIANCA MANALO, the country's bet to the 2009 Miss Universe pageant and a PAL domestic flight attendant on-leave, come coronation night August 24 at The Bahamas. Bianca's training as a cabin attendant – graduating with honors in July 2008 – and deep religious devotion helped her win the Binibining Pilipinas-Universe crown last March 7. Bianca comes from a family of beauty queens: eldest sister, Katherine Manalo-Hernandez was finalist at the 2002 Miss World; while aunt Nini Ramos-Licaros was also finalist at the 1968 Miss International.
